

The QUEENSLANDER PICTORIAL.

OF "I'M BIGGEST"

Copyrighted by the author

The "Longest" house and the site of the two other buildings in Newbury.

A PEEP AT Fitzroy

and the country about

St. Andrew's
Church, of England.

St. Andrew's Roman Catholic Cathedral.

View of Fitzroy.

The house of Mrs. J. H. Smith.

The house of Mr. J. H. Smith.

"WAGON" SERIES.

A Russian wolf head (shown) of the "Wagon" series (shown) about showing a little of a little of the "Wagon" series for a little.

—P. H. Smith photo.

WAGON OF THE WAGON.

A view of the "Wagon" series, in the "Wagon" series.

—T. H. Smith photo.

THE LIGHT OF THE SUNSET.—THE BRITISH HOUSES OF PARLIAMENT BY THE THAMES.
The photograph was taken while the Royal Barge was passing during a recent royal pageant.

—Reynolds Illustration photo.

THE MAN WITH HIS FINGER ON THE SCALE OF THE SWORD.

Mr. Lloyd George speaking to an audience of welcome in the harbor village of Cowes, Wales, during a recent royal pageant. It will be noted that the Prime Minister, the most widely known man in the world, has spent much more time than any other during the war years during the war years.

—Reynolds Illustration photo.

BACK FROM A SOUTHERN PLEASURE CRUISE

The sailing ship Albatross arrived at Seaside last week after a five-month pleasure cruise along the coast of Queensland and neighboring islands. The crew picture shows the party making up the pleasure cruise. In the group at the stern from left to right are: Mr. H. H. Thompson, Mr. T. H. Thompson, Mr. H. H. Thompson, and Captain R. C. Thompson. In the front row are: Mr. H. H. Thompson, Mr. H. H. Thompson, and Mr. H. H. Thompson.

—Specialist photo.

AN ILLUSTRATION FOR

The street leading to the hotel after the fire which occurred on the night of September 10, 1901. The building in the background (Hotel) is the site of the present Ipswich police station.

BABY LITTLE BOY.

—A. F. PETER PHOTO.

NATIVE.

One of the aborigines who attended the funeral and were reported to be the Native King. He died in August 1901. Mr. E. B. Ireland, who took this photograph, called William a his name. Taken by him.

—C. MURPHY PHOTO.

QUEENSLAND'S FIRST VOLUNTEER CAMP.

The first training camp of the Brisbane Volunteers was held at Ingleburn in Easter, 1875. This photograph taken by "The original" Thomas Watsons (who is still in business in Queensland), has been recently purchased by Mr. E. A. Davis, who was appointed historian for the camp—see page 16.

THE BARKENTINE IN THE BARRIAGE RIVER IN 1875.

The Barkentine was the ship in which Prince Alfred, Duke of Edinburgh, travelled on his memorable visit to Australia, 1868, when he was shot at in Sydney and wounded by the 'Lancet' Party. The Barkentine anchored in the Barrage River on January 25, 1875, and left again on February 6. This photograph, as well as the other two daily-day pictures on this page, were kindly loaned by Mr. E. A. Davis.

CRAGS ISLAND, AS SEEN IN THE NORTHERN BARRIAGE.

—A. F. PETER PHOTO.

THE HON. GEORGE OF CAMBRIDGE.

This photograph was recently taken in London, and shows the Prince of Wales in his usual suit.

THE EYE AND THE RETINA.

A retinal view of the eye and the retina in the distance. The eye appears very bright in the center photograph, which was taken in 1911, after "Anatomy."

THE POSSIBILITIES OF THE FUTURE...for "Agitation."

The first and third photographs show bunches of fruit in the garden of Mr. J. C. Young, Portland, in the winter of 1914. In the center view is a view of the garden in the summer of 1914. All are of the "Portland" variety. The fruit in each photograph is that of the "Portland" variety. The photographs show bunches of fruit in the garden of Mr. J. C. Young, Portland, in the winter of 1914. In the center view is a view of the garden in the summer of 1914. All are of the "Portland" variety. The fruit in each photograph is that of the "Portland" variety.

THE MAN WHO KNEW THE SECRET.

Admiral von Bismarck, the German officer in command of the fleet which was in action with the British fleet, "discovered" the secret of the German fleet's victory at the Battle of Jutland. The British fleet had been in a battle for the first time in the history of the British fleet. The British fleet had been in a battle for the first time in the history of the British fleet.

OF CHARLES OF KENTON YOUNG.

A red python killed by a gopher (the snake from the West). It is 10 feet long, 10 inches in diameter, and is 10 feet long. It is 10 feet long, 10 inches in diameter, and is 10 feet long. It is 10 feet long, 10 inches in diameter, and is 10 feet long.